Opposition No. 151,757

H.H. Brown Shoe Company.,
Inc.

v.

Lenworth Alexander Hyatt

Angela Lykos, Interlocutory Attorney

Applicant filed a communication on July 11, 2002. It is presumed that this communication is intended as an answer to the notice of opposition. A reading of this informal "answer" reveals, however, that it is argumentative and more in the nature of a brief on the case than a responsive pleading to the notice of opposition. As such, it does not comply with Rule 8(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, made applicable this proceeding by Trademark Rule 2.116(a).

Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b) provides, in part:

A party shall state in short and plain terms the party's defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If a party is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, the party shall so state and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, the pleader shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder.

The notice of opposition filed by opposer herein consists of eight (8) paragraphs setting forth the basis of opposer's claim of damage. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b) it is incumbent on applicant to answer the notice of opposition by admitting or denying the allegations contained in each paragraph. If applicant is without sufficient knowledge or information on which to form a belief as to the truth of any one of the allegations, it should so state and this will have the effect of a denial.

In view of the foregoing, applicant is allowed until thirty (30) days from the mailing date of this order in which to file an answer herein which complies with Fed. R. Civ. P. 8.

On August 7, 2002, applicant filed a communication entitled "Petition for Requisition" in which he requested that the Board order opposer to provide "documentary evidence to support the claims made in his opposition." No such procedure exists for the Board to order discovery of parties to a proceeding. To the extent that applicant's communication is a motion to compel discovery, it fails to comply with the requirements contained in Trademark Rule 2.120(e). Applicant's attention is directed to Trademark Trial and Appeal Board

Manual of Procedure, Chapters 400 and 500, regarding the conduct of discovery in Board proceedings as well as motion practice.

In view of the foregoing, applicant's "motion" is denied.

In addition, applicant should note that Trademark Rules 2.119(a) and (b) require that every paper filed in the Patent and Trademark Office in a proceeding before the Board must be served upon the attorney for the other party, or on the party if there is no attorney, and proof of such service must be made before the paper will be considered by the Board.

Consequently, copies of all papers which applicant may subsequently file in this proceeding, including its answer to the notice of opposition, must be accompanied by a signed statement indicating the date and manner in which such service was made. The statement, whether attached to or appearing on the paper when filed, will be accepted as prima facie proof of service.

It should also be noted that while Patent and Trademark Rule 10.14 permits any person to represent itself, it is generally advisable for a person who is not acquainted with the technicalities of the procedural and substantive law involved in an opposition proceeding to secure the services of an attorney who is familiar with such matters. The Patent and Trademark Office cannot aid in the selection of an attorney.

It is recommended that applicant obtain a copy of the latest edition of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations, which includes the Trademark Rules of Practice and is available for a fee from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.¹

Strict compliance with the Trademark Rules of Practice, and where applicable the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, is expected of all parties before the Board, whether or not they are represented by counsel.

Discovery and trial dates remain as set in the Board's institution order.
